Ask Me For A Fish

Article Written By: juli

"Ask and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:" Matthew 7:7

Ask me for a fish, I can feed you for a day,
Ask me for a dollar and soon it will go away.
Ask me for some help and I can do what I can,
Ask me for advice and you get what saith man.
Ask me for clothes and I will search for you,
Ask me for a ride and I will see what I can do.
Ask me for anything and this is what you get,
Ask me for anything and I pray you no regrets

For I am but a human, and I am so limited to do,
Why not ask of the Lord Jesus, our God for you?

Ask Him for a fish and He will feed your spirit for years,
Ask Him for a dollar and He will teach you, no fears.
Ask Him for some help and He will meet you there,
Ask Him for advice and wisdom will He declare.
Ask Him for clothes and He will provide more than that,
Ask Him for a ride and He will show you where it's at.
Anything you ask of Him, Jesus will go beyond what you think,
Seek and find these things with Him and you'll go beyond the brink.

You make the decisions that line that dusty road,
It's your burdens and toils that you choose to hold.

Boarding in the Kingdom where He prepared the called,
Your choice, in the day you die is where you are hauled.
Ask of Him who is able to carry you through,
Ask Him who beckons you, the right thing-do.
