"Also on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD." Leviticus 23:27

Beginning with Adam and Eve, the Word was the command,
Disobedience came to play, thus they hid from God's plan.

God seen the need back then, and with shedding of blood He covered sin,
And for many years hence, blood was shed over and over again.

It was not complete, for the sins were pushed ahead,
For one year at a time; that's what the Bible said.

The perfect sacrifice presented at the precise minute,
His Blood can do the job and all there is in it.

Yes, He healed, resurrected, taught, compelled,
Gave parables, instructions, forgave and willed.

Until that day came and at the garden when Jesus prayed,
"Nevertheless" was the word, He emphasized on that day.

Betrayed, then convicted of nothing that they can ever say,
Because Jesus, our God, was perfect in each and every way.

And He was despised, crucified, on the cross He was hung,
Thus act of sins being permanently covered had just begun.

Because His blood was perfect since birth that's very clear,
Our sins no longer needed to be pushed back in every year.

He died, snatched the keys from hell; death has no more sting,
Then He rose from the dead; into Heaven; oh how glorious we now sing.
