Daydreaming has its rewards. Kick back and look at the clouds.

They are magnificent. Look there is a turtle. No, that looks like a whale.

Over there, a ship! Where else can you see a dragon eat an apple?

Don't you just want to ride that fluffy one to wherever it takes you? I am so sure that it would be the softest ride ever!

Life. Do you really want to go through life without taking time for the clouds? Do you want to miss the flowers and aroma? Just sit back and allow the breeze to cool you off. Have you seen the real you lately? Just the pure you. The you that no one else knows about? The you that you keep hidden. Yes, that you.

Get transparent before the Lord. Take all of the responsibilities and all the bills, take all the repairs, and all of the relationships, take all of the frustrations, and all of the failures and all of the joys and happiness, and tell them to Jesus. Fall on your knees and let Jesus have you. You need Jesus and Jesus desires you.

Stop and look at the clouds. Realize that they are in the sky, just waiting for you to relax in their beauty. Jesus painted them for you!

*"The heavens declare the glory of God;
and the firmament sheweth his handiwork."*

Psalm 19:1
