Do Nothing

Hebrews 6:12 "That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises."

Do you want to go to hell? Do nothing. Do absolutely nothing. Don't lift a finger. Don't change. If you claim to be a Christian and you are doing nothing, then yes, that is the ticket for hell. Just keep doing nothing. Don't pray. Don't fast. Don't read the Word. Don't think about God. Think about it, there's no such thing as a lazy Christian. If your name isn't written in the Lamb's Book of Life, then you are not a Christian. Lazy? Doing nothing? Yep, not Godly.

You must, at least, repent daily; at the very least.

This is very important. The main thought about Heaven today is everyone gets to go. Let me tell you the truth: Being good is great, but not great enough to get you to Heaven. Not being obedient to Jesus sets you up for residency in hell for an eternity.

Matthew 19:17 "And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments."

We have been born into a test. Am I going to choose God or am I going to choose me. God or me? Will I allow my wants and desires to become God's wants and desires? Will I hold on to my hopes and dreams or will I change my hopes and dreams to align with God's will?

Philippians 1:21 "For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain."

Romans 14:8 "For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's."

Do nothing, don't change, don't take a side, don't put forth the effort for Jesus, these all are choices. Not making a choice is, in fact, a choice.

If, by chance, you would like to go to Heaven for all eternity, then do something. Start. If you haven't been praying, start. If you haven't given Jesus a thought, then start. Start, read a scripture or two. You don't need to start with a full day fast, fast a meal. Fast entertainment and choose a substitute (i.e. Bible reading/studying). Attend a service unto the Lord. It is His house after all; why not go?

I like the term baby steps. It makes sense not to do everything at once. I did that, I wanted to do everything at once and I failed miserably. But I got back up and dusted myself off, and tried again, but with more reasonable expectations.

How do you eat an elephant? One bite at a time.

Set up small objectives and small steps for your goals for Jesus. Post notes for yourself and remind yourself what is important. Ask Jesus for help. Anything that helps you with Jesus.

You can “do” it, if you choose to.

James 2:17-26

¹⁷Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. ¹⁸Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. ¹⁹Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble. ²⁰But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead? ²¹Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? ²²Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? ²³And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God. ²⁴Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only. ²⁵Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way? ²⁶For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.”
