

Relationship w/Jesus

ARTICLE

intentional

Let It Pour

Article Written By: juli

*And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. <sup>2</sup>And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. Acts 2:1-2

Ever since I moved in my home, I have absolutely loved my showers. It doesn't just allow water to fall upon you. It doesn't just, "do the job" to get a person clean. It gives you a torrential down pour. It's almost like taking a bath standing up. SWEET. And when I stand under that hot water engulfing me, I cannot help but be so very thankful for that shower. I can just feel the presence of the Lord soothing every inch of me. Thank You Lord!

I think about the times that the Lord does that with His Spirit. To engulf me in a torrential down pour of His Holy Ghost. It doesn't happen everyday, however, if Jesus did allow that torrential down pour, I know in my mind, I would common-ize it. And the last thing I would want, is to allow any part of my walk with the Lord to be common. I like the specialness of it; unique. I like the exceptional way I feel when Jesus sends down that heavy pouring of the Holy Ghost rain. I stand under it and allow it to fully engulf me to that point where all my inner pains, hurts, confusions, anger and nonsense are all washed away.

And when I step out. I may have to dry myself from the tears, but it was well worth it. Life doesn't change, but my attitude does. And with that I am satisfied that God has worked a miracle in my life once again.

Yes, Lord, Pour it on!

Acts 2:3-4

<sup>3</sup>And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. <sup>4</sup>And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance."

